Report on Quiz Competition

On the 9th of September, 2022, Akui Kamalabala Women's College hosted an engaging and intellectually stimulating quiz competition. The event saw a wide participation from the students, organized into teams that demonstrated their knowledge and quick-wittedness across various topics. The competition was a platform not only for showcasing academic prowess but also for fostering teamwork and camaraderie among the students.

The quiz competition was organized into several groups, each comprising diligent participants who were eager to put their best foot forward. Group A was represented by Ayesha Khatun and Sarada Rudra, bringing a mix of enthusiasm and strategic thinking to the table. Group B had Madhumita Roy and Soumi Mitra, who showcased their keen insights and depth of knowledge. Taniya Chakraborty and Tanushree Patra formed Group C, displaying commendable teamwork and intellectual agility. Group D included Rimpa Dey and Piyali Dey, whose synergy and comprehensive understanding of topics were evident. Darati Dey and Ankana Dey from Group E, and Ankita Rakshit and Baishakhi Dan from Group F, also participated with great zeal, contributing to the competitive spirit of the event.

The competition concluded with Group D, consisting of Rimpa Dey and Piyali Dey, emerging as the winners. Their exceptional knowledge, quick response times, and the ability to work seamlessly together set them apart, earning them the victory in a closely contested competition. The success of the quiz competition at Akui Kamalabala Women's College not only highlighted the intellectual talents of its students but also underscored the importance of teamwork and collaborative learning in achieving success. The event was a testament to the vibrant academic community within the college, encouraging a love for knowledge and continuous learning among students.

Street-Play Performance

On the 26th of November, 2022, the Department of Bengali at Akui Kamalabala Women's College organized a compelling street-play performance titled "Satidaho." This culturally significant event brought to life the poignant issues surrounding the practice of Sati, with a strong emphasis on historical and societal impacts. The performance was a testament to the department's commitment to addressing critical social issues through the power of drama and storytelling.

The event showcased the talents of seven remarkable participants, each bringing their unique energy and dedication to the performance. Ankana Dey led the ensemble, setting the stage for a powerful narrative. Priya Ruidas portrayed the central character of Sati, delivering a performance that was both heart-wrenching and thought-provoking. Supriya Roy and Puja Ruidas contributed significantly, with Puja playing the challenging role of Sati's mother, adding depth to the portrayal of familial bonds and societal pressures. Debosree Chakraborty took on the role of Rammohon Roy, offering a glimpse into the reformative efforts against the practice of Sati. Darati Dey and Piyali Dey, both portraying Brahmins, added layers of complexity to the narrative, highlighting the religious and social dimensions of the issue.

The street-play not only provided a platform for these talented individuals to showcase their acting prowess but also served as an educational tool, enlightening the audience on the historical practice of Sati and its implications. The Department of Bengali's initiative to organize such an event demonstrates their commitment to fostering a deep understanding of Bengali culture and history among students, while also encouraging critical discussions on social reform. The performance of "Satidaho" at Akui Kamalabala Women's College was a poignant reminder of the power of art to inspire change and provoke thought, leaving a lasting impact on all who witnessed it.

Quiz competition in connection with SRER-2023

(In Collaboration with B.D.O Office, Indus, Bankura)

On December 1st, 2022, Akui Kamalabala Women's College hosted an engaging quiz competition as part of the Special Summary Revision of Electoral Rolls (SRER) 2023. This event was organized in collaboration with the B.D.O Office, Indus, Bankura, marking a significant effort to foster awareness and participation among the youth in the democratic electoral process. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation, with a total of thirty-four contestants vying for the top positions.

As the competition progressed, the intellectual rigor and the breadth of knowledge of the participants were put to the test. Finally, after several challenging rounds, only six participants were selected for the final round, divided into three groups. Group A featured Ananya Mondal and Sanhati Ghosh, demonstrating remarkable teamwork and knowledge. Group B comprised Debi Dikpati and Taslima Khatun, who together, showcased their adeptness at navigating through the questions with ease. Lastly, Group C had Rakhi Chattopadhyay and Taniya Chakraborty, both of whom impressed the judges with their quick thinking and depth of understanding on various topics.

The quiz competition not only highlighted the academic excellence of the students of Akui Kamalabala Women's College but also underscored the importance of staying informed and engaged in the electoral process. It was a commendable initiative that combined learning with civic awareness, encouraging students to become more active participants in the democratic fabric of the nation. The event concluded with praises for the participants' efforts and the anticipation of more such enriching activities in the future.

Reunion Ceremony

The Department of Bengali at Akui Kamalabala Women's College celebrated a heart-warming reunion ceremony on December 3, 2022, marking a significant day of reconnection, reminiscence, and joyous celebration for its alumni, current students, and faculty members. This event not only served as a bridge across various graduating batches but also as a testament to the enduring legacy and cultural heritage of the department.

The ceremony commenced with a warm welcome address by Dr. Sk Nazrul Islam the head of the Department of Bengali, who highlighted the department's achievements, growth, and its ongoing commitment to fostering a deep appreciation for Bengali literature and culture among its students. The address was followed by a series of enriching cultural performances, including poetry recitations, traditional dance, and music that paid homage to the rich Bengali cultural heritage. These performances not only showcased the talents of current students but also celebrated the contributions of the alumni.

One of the highlights of the day was the interactive session between the alumni and the current students, providing an invaluable opportunity for sharing experiences, guidance, and advice. The exchange was not only inspiring for the students but also nostalgic for the alumni, as they reminisced about their cherished moments and the foundational years spent in the department.

The reunion ceremony of the Department of Bengali at Akui Kamalabala Women's College was a resounding success, leaving a lasting impression on all who attended. It underscored the importance of maintaining connections and celebrating the shared heritage and accomplishments of the Bengali community within the college. The event served as a reminder of the profound impact that education and culture have on shaping individuals and fostering a sense of belonging and community.

Fresher's Welcome Celebration

The Department of History at Akui Kamalabala Women's College recently celebrated its Freshers' Welcome, a much-anticipated event that took place in the college's Seminar Hall on December 13, 2022. This celebration was spearheaded by the esteemed Head of the Department, Dr. Sk Nazrul Islam, whose initiative brought together the faculty, current students, and the new entrants for a day marked by enthusiasm, cultural richness, and academic camaraderie.

The event commenced with an inaugural speech by Anusree Mondal, who extended a warm welcome to the freshers and emphasized the department's commitment to fostering a nurturing environment that encourages scholarly pursuit and personal growth.

Moreover, the Freshers' Welcome was not just about cultural displays; it also included interactive sessions where the new students were introduced to the academic opportunities and extracurricular activities available within the department. This event served as a platform for building connections between students across different years, fostering a sense of community and belonging. Valediction speech delivered by Debyendu Mondal.

Report Fresher's Welcome Celebration

The Department of Bengali at Akui Kamalabala Women's College recently celebrated its Freshers' Welcome, a much-anticipated event that took place in the college's Seminar Hall on December 17, 2022. This celebration was spearheaded by the esteemed Head of the Department, Dr. Sk Nazrul Islam, whose initiative brought together the faculty, current students, and the new entrants for a day marked by enthusiasm, cultural richness, and academic camaraderie.

The event commenced with an Inaugural speech by Dr. Sk Nazrul Islam, who extended a warm welcome to the freshers and emphasized the department's commitment to fostering a nurturing environment that encourages scholarly pursuit and personal growth. Following the opening remarks, the day was filled with a variety of performances including poetry recitations, music, and dramatic readings, all of which highlighted the richness of Bengali culture and literature. The senior students played a pivotal role in organizing these cultural showcases, ensuring a blend of entertainment and inspiration for their junior counterparts.

Moreover, the Freshers' Welcome was not just about cultural displays; it also included interactive sessions where the new students were introduced to the academic opportunities and extracurricular activities available within the department. This event served as a platform for building connections between students across different years, fostering a sense of community and belonging. The department's initiative under Dr. Islam's leadership exemplifies a commendable effort to welcome and integrate new students into the academic and cultural fold of Akui Kamalabala Women's College, setting a positive tone for their forthcoming academic journey.

Report Annual Sports- 2022

The Akui Kamalabala Women's College successfully hosted its Annual Sports Meet on the 22nd and 23rd of December, 2022. The two-day event was a celebration of athleticism, competition, and camaraderie among the students. A total of eight engaging events were organized, showcasing a wide range of physical skills and strategic thinking.

The competition kicked off with the Shot Put, testing the strength and technique of the participants, followed by the Discus Throw, where precision and power were the key to success. The Long Jump brought an air of excitement as competitors pushed their limits to achieve the furthest leap. The 50m Run was a thrilling dash, highlighting the speed and agility of the athletes. In a unique twist, a Math Race was included, blending physical endurance with mental agility, challenging participants to solve mathematical problems along the route. The Skipping event added a rhythmic and dynamic challenge, while the Spoon Marble Race and the Slow Cycle Race offered a test of balance, concentration, and control, wrapping up the sports meet with laughter and cheer.

The participants and winners list as follows:

Drawing Competition

Akui Kamalabala Women's College recently had the pleasure of hosting an inspiring Drawing Competition for its students, showcasing the incredible talent within its community. The event took place on the 3rd of January, 2023, and was a testament to the creativity and artistic skills of the participants. Despite the modest number of entrants, with a total of eight students taking part, the competition was fierce, highlighting an impressive range of styles and expressions.

The competition concluded with three remarkable students being recognized for their exceptional skills. Priyanka Das was awarded the first place for her outstanding artwork, demonstrating remarkable creativity and technique. Following her, Sanhati Ghosh secured the second position with her unique interpretation and execution, while Baishakhi Dan earned the third spot with her captivating piece. These winners exemplify the high standard of artistic talent present among the students at Akui Kamalabala Women's College.

The success of this event was made possible through the initiative and dedication of Hemanta Maji from the Department of Philosophy, Debyendu Mondal from the Department of History, and Jyotirmoy Dutta also from the Department of History. Their efforts in organizing and overseeing this competition not only provided a platform for students to showcase their artistic talents but also fostered a sense of community and creativity within the college. It is events like these that enrich the educational experience for students, offering them opportunities to explore and develop their interests beyond the traditional academic curriculum.

Recitation Competition

Akui Kamalabala Women's College recently celebrated the art of oration through its much-anticipated Recitation Competition, held on the 5th of January, 2023. This event showcased the exceptional talent of its students, accentuating the importance of recitation in enriching the cultural and literary landscape of the institution. The competition saw an array of participants, each bringing their unique voice and interpretation to the stage, making the event a memorable one.

The list of participants included seven talented students: Sanhati Ghosh, Ananya Mondal, Rimpa Nandi, Shantana Khatun, Sweta Roy, Priya Panja, and Antara Dey, who performed with utmost dedication and passion. Their performances were a testament to their hard work and the rich literary tradition of Akui Kamalabala Women's College. The competition concluded with Rimpa Nandi securing the first position, followed by Antara Dey in the second, and Priya Panja in third. Their performances were not only a display of their individual talents but also a reflection of the vibrant cultural ethos that the college nurtures.

The event was initiated by Dr. Sk Nzrul Islam from the Department of Bengali and Ajoy Kuiry from the Department of Philosophy, whose efforts in organizing the competition were commendable. Their dedication towards providing a platform for students to express their literary talents has been instrumental in the success of this event. The Recitation Competition at Akui Kamalabala Women's College has once again highlighted the importance of cultural events in fostering a sense of community and celebrating the diverse talents of students.

Singing Competition

The Akui Kamalabala Women's College recently hosted an enthralling singing competition that showcased the vocal talents of its students. This event was a celebration of music and talent, bringing together nine participants who each brought their unique style and passion to the stage. The competition was a testament to the diverse musical talents within the college, making it a memorable occasion for both participants and audience alike.

Sarada Rudra emerged as the winner of the competition, captivating the judges and the audience with her exceptional vocal range and emotional depth. Her performance was a standout, demonstrating not only technical proficiency but also a deep connection to the music she performed. Ananya Paramanik secured the second place with her powerful and nuanced performance. Her ability to convey complex emotions through her singing left a lasting impression on all who were present. Ananya Mondal claimed the third spot, showcasing her versatility and command over different musical genres. Her performance was both vibrant and touching, highlighting her as a rising talent to watch.

The competition was more than just a display of musical ability; it was a celebration of the hard work, dedication, and passion of the students. The Akui Kamalabala Women's College has once again proven to be a nurturing ground for young talents, providing them with a platform to shine and develop their artistic skills. The success of this event not only reflects the high standard of musical talent at the college but also promises great things for the future of these young artists.

Quiz Competition

The Akui Kamalabala Women's College hosted a remarkable quiz competition on the 6th of February, 2023, manifesting a vibrant showcase of knowledge and quick-wittedness among the students. The event, meticulously planned and executed, saw the participation of six enthusiastic contestants, each eager to display their intellectual prowess and compete for the top positions.

The competition was intense, with questions ranging across various disciplines, challenging the participants' breadth and depth of knowledge. It was a close contest, indicative of the high preparation level and the competitive spirit of the students. After several rounds of mind-stimulating questions and answers, the competition concluded with the announcement of the winners, who distinguished themselves with their exceptional performance.

Priya Manna emerged as the champion of the competition, securing the 1st position with her outstanding knowledge and quick response time. Shrabana Malik claimed the 2nd position, demonstrating remarkable intellect and grasp over the subjects. The 3rd place was gracefully secured by Suvra Murmu, who showcased a commendable level of knowledge and competitive spirit. The achievements of these participants not only highlighted their individual capabilities but also set a benchmark for future competitions.

The quiz competition at Akui Kamalabala Women's College was a testament to the academic enthusiasm and the spirit of learning among the students. It provided a platform for showcasing talent, encouraging healthy competition, and fostering a culture of knowledge and intellectual curiosity. The success of the event was a collective effort of the participants, organizers, and the college administration, promising to inspire similar events in the future to enlighten and challenge the student community.

Basanta Utsav Celebration Report

Date: April 4, 2023

On the vibrant morning of April 4th, 2023, Akui Kamalabala Women's College transformed into a canvas painted with the joyous colors of spring to celebrate the Basanta Utsav. Between the hours of 11 AM and 2 PM, the college premises buzzed with the enthusiasm of 47 participating students, each adding their own hue to the festivities. The event was a testament to the rich cultural heritage of welcoming the spring season, which is emblematically significant in various parts of India.

The Basanta Utsav at Akui Kamalabala Women's College was meticulously organized to ensure a blend of cultural appreciation and student engagement. The participants, donned in traditional attire, mirrored the essence of spring through their costumes, performances, and the vibrancy they brought to the college grounds. The event was marked by a series of performances, including folk music, dance, and poetry recitations that celebrated the theme of renewal, joy, and the spirit of togetherness that spring embodies.

Moreover, the event was not just a cultural showcase but also a platform for students to demonstrate their talents, leadership, and organizational skills. The successful execution of the Basanta Utsav was a collective effort, reflecting the community's spirit and the participants' dedication. The college premises were adorned with seasonal flowers and decorations that complemented the theme, creating a festive atmosphere that was both inviting and exhilarating.

In conclusion, the Basanta Utsav held at Akui Kamalabala Women's College on April 4th, 2023, was a colorful and joyous celebration of spring, culture, and community spirit. It provided a memorable experience for the participants and attendees alike, fostering a sense of unity and cultural pride among the students. The event underscored the importance of cultural festivals in educational institutions as a means of preserving tradition, encouraging creativity, and building a cohesive community.

Report On Rabindra Jayanti Ceremony

The Rabindra Jayanti Ceremony, a prestigious event commemorating the birth anniversary of the world-renowned poet, Rabindranath Tagore, was gracefully organized by Akui Kamalabala Women's College on the 9th of May, 2022. This ceremony not only celebrated the literary genius of Tagore but also aimed to imbue the essence of his works among the attendees. Rabindranath Tagore, a Nobel laureate and a polymath, has been an emblem of Indian literature and culture, and his contributions have transcended geographical boundaries to touch the hearts of people globally.

The event was meticulously planned, starting with an inaugural speech by Dr.Sk Nazrul Islam, Dept.of Bengali, that highlighted the significance of Tagore's contributions to literature, music, and art. The college premises were adorned with Tagore's portraits, and his poems and songs resonated, creating an ambiance that was both inspirational and contemplative. Students and faculty members participated with great enthusiasm, presenting dance recitals, recitations, and dramatic readings of Tagore's works. These performances not only showcased their talents but also their deep appreciation and understanding of Tagore's creations.

Furthermore, the ceremony included scholarly discussions by Dr.Pitambar Paul, Principal, who elucidated on various aspects of Tagore's life, his philosophies, and his relevance in contemporary times. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Rajasree Roy, Dept.of Bengali, expressing gratitude towards all participants, organizers, and attendees for making the Rabindra Jayanti Ceremony a memorable and successful homage to Rabindranath Tagore. The Akui Kamalabala Women's College, through this event, fostered a deeper connection with Indian culture and literature, creating an enduring impact on the minds of young learners.

Wall Magazine Publication Ceremony

The Department of Philosophy at Akui Kamalabala Women's College marked a significant milestone on May 26, 2023, with the publication of their Wall Magazine, titled "Kalpotaru." This initiative, spearheaded by the enthusiastic members of the department, was brought to fruition under the able guidance and publication efforts of Dr. Sourabh Dutta, IC and Registrar of Bankura University.

"Kalpotaru" is not just a publication; it represents the collective creativity, insights, and aspirations of the students and faculty members involved. The magazine serves as a canvas for expressing thoughts, literary works, art, and critical commentaries on societal issues, thereby fostering a vibrant intellectual community within the college. The publication ceremony was a reflection of the dedication and passion that went into creating this wall magazine, celebrating the efforts of all contributors and the leadership of Dr. Dutta.

The event was attended by students, faculty members, and distinguished guest, who all shared their commendations for the high-quality work displayed. Dr. Dutta, in his address, highlighted the importance of such platforms in empowering students and encouraging scholarly and creative pursuits. He also expressed his gratitude towards the college administration for their unwavering support and to the students for their enthusiastic participation. This publication not only enriches the academic environment but also sets a precedent for future initiatives, inspiring others to engage in meaningful expressions of their intellectual and creative endeavours.

Wall Magazine Publication Ceremony

On June 26, 2023, the Department of History at Akui Kamalabala Women's College celebrated a significant milestone with the publication ceremony of their wall magazine, "Itihas Darpon". This event marked not just the culmination of hard work and dedication but also a celebration of the rich historical narratives that the magazine aimed to encapsulate. Dr. Pitambar Paul, the esteemed Principal of Akui Kamalabala Women's College, played a pivotal role in this endeavor, serving as the publication's patron and providing invaluable guidance throughout the process.

"Itihas Darpon" is a testament to the vibrant academic spirit that thrives within the walls of Akui Kamalabala Women's College. The magazine serves as a platform for students and faculty members alike to delve into the past, exploring the intricacies of history and its profound impact on the present and future. Through a variety of articles, essays, and visual content, "Itihas Darpon" strives to bridge the gap between historical scholarship and the wider college community, making the study of history accessible, engaging, and relevant to all.

The publication ceremony was a resounding success, attended by faculty members, students, and distinguished guests who gathered to celebrate the achievements of the Department of History. The event not only highlighted the collaborative effort behind "Itihas Darpon" but also underscored the college's commitment to fostering an environment where academic inquiry and creativity are encouraged. As "Itihas Darpon" finds its place on the walls of Akui Kamalabala Women's College, it stands as a beacon of intellectual exploration, inviting all who pass by to pause, read, and reflect on the lessons history has to offer.
