Value added Course on " Soft Skills for Employability "

Course Name: Soft Skills for Employability

Course Duration: 29.08.2022 to 03.09.2022

Time: 08:30 am to 10:30 am

Creating a course module for soft skills for employability involves curating content that enhances the interpersonal and professional attributes critical for workplace success. This module is designed to bridge the gap between traditional academic skills and the practical abilities needed in the dynamic environment of today's workplace.

Module 1: Communication Skills

- Objective: Enhance verbal and written communication skills for professional settings.
- Topics Covered: Effective listening, clarity in speech, professional writing (emails, reports), presentation skills, and non-verbal communication cues.
- Activities: Role-playing exercises, group discussions, presentation practice sessions, and writing workshops.

Module 2: Teamwork and Collaboration

- Objective: Develop the ability to work effectively within diverse teams.
- Topics Covered: Understanding team dynamics, roles within a team, conflict resolution strategies, and collaboration tools.
- Activities: Team-building exercises, case study analysis, collaborative projects, and peer feedback sessions.

Module 3: Problem-solving and Critical Thinking

- Objective: Foster the ability to analyze problems, think critically, and devise solutions.
- Topics Covered: Identifying and framing problems, decision-making processes, creative thinking techniques, and evaluating outcomes.
- Activities: Problem-solving workshops, simulation games, brainstorming sessions, and critical thinking exercises.

Module 4: Professional Ethics and Social Responsibility

- Objective: Instil a sense of ethical conduct and social responsibility in a professional context.
- Topics Covered: Ethical decision-making, workplace integrity, corporate social responsibility, and cultural sensitivity.
- Activities: Ethical dilemma debates, analysis of case studies, role-playing ethical situations, and group discussions on social impact projects.

30.9.22

Co-ordinator
I.Q.A.C.

Module 5: Emotional Intelligence and Personal Development

- Objective: Improve self-awareness, emotional regulation, motivation, empathy, and social skills.
- Topics Covered: Understanding emotions, stress management, self-motivation techniques, empathy in communication, and building relationships.
- Activities: Emotional intelligence assessments, mindfulness exercises, personal reflection journals, and empathy training workshops.

Module 6: Adaptability and Continuous Learning

- Objective: Prepare students for the rapidly changing workplace and the importance of lifelong learning.
- Topics Covered: Adaptability skills, learning strategies, staying current with industry trends, and personal growth planning.
- Activities: Change management simulations, personal development plans, industry expert webinars, and learning style assessments.

By the end of the course, participants will not only understand the importance of these soft skills in enhancing their employability but will also have had the opportunity to develop and practice these skills in a supportive, practical learning environment. This will set the foundation for continuous personal and professional development and help participants stand out in the competitive job market.

Value added Course on "Soft Skills for Employability"

Akui Kamalabala Women's College, in a commendable initiative organized by its Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), recently concluded a highly enriching Value Added Course on "Soft Skills for Employability." This week-long program, held from August 29, 2022, to September 3, 2022, was designed to equip the participants with essential soft skills necessary for thriving in the modern workplace. Under the patronage of Dr. Pitambar Paul, the course attracted an enthusiastic participation of 30 students from the college, all eager to enhance their employability skills.

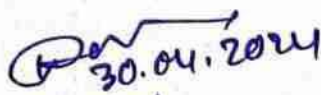

The course was meticulously guided by a trio of distinguished mentors: Dr. Sk. Nazrul Islam, Dr. Nandini Maity, and Mr. Ajoy Kuiry. These mentors brought with them a wealth of knowledge and practical insights into the development of soft skills such as communication, teamwork, problem-solving, and adaptability. Their interactive sessions provided a comprehensive understanding of how these skills complement technical expertise and academic knowledge, making a significant difference in the professional realm.

Participants engaged in various activities designed to foster these skills, including group discussions, workshops, and role-playing exercises. The course was not only an opportunity for learning but also for self-reflection, allowing students to identify their strengths and areas for improvement. Feedback from the participants has been overwhelmingly positive, highlighting an increased confidence in their ability to navigate the challenges of the job market. The success of this course underscores the importance of integrating soft skills training into academic curricula, a move that the Akui Kamalabala Women's College has pioneered, setting a commendable example for others to follow.
